

The FCC acting in the peoples' interest and not that of the broadcast industry. You should be maximizing diversity of broadcast ownership and working against monopolization of the media by a few owners.